Broke His Collar Bone.

J. B. WHITED, the photographer, corner of Eighth and Main, was thrown from a buggy on Eighth street yesterday afternoon and sustained a broken collar bone. The accident was caused by a cow colliding with the buggy.

A Corset Swindler.

THE Frankfort Ledger tells of a corset swindler who has been operating in that city. He first slipped a circular under the doors, offering to sell a new corset for eleven cents. Later he called and collected the eleven cents and promised to send the corset in a few days. Of course none of the corsets came. Paris ladies should watch for this dead beat.

A Good Sale.

AUCTIONER A. T. FOSYTH sold publicly Tuesday for B. F. Bedford, Jr., 1250 acres of land on the North Middletown pike, four miles from Paris, to Sam'l Mackey, of Jessamine, for seventy dollars per acre. Horses sold from $10 to $40; cows $35 to $40.50; mules $45; pairs $101 to $200; sows $9 to $18; sows and pigs $29; yews $4 to $8; bucks $8 to $13.50; common yews $3.30 each; quantity of corn in crib sold for $200; farm implements brought fair prices.

These Are In Hoc.

Lou Anderson, charged with running a horse of ill repute, and Nettie Smith, charged with breach of peace, are in jail awaiting trial. Dan Washington, is also in hoc, awaiting trial for chastising his wife. All parties are colored.

In Judge Webb's court Tuesday Worth Thomas, a negro, was fined fifty dollars and costs for cutting Thos. Gray, a white man, living near Hutchison. The cutting occurred on Main street near Sixth, and was unprovoked, though the men had exchanged hot words some time ago.

Killed By An Apple.

BEN BRADLEY, a Millersburg negro, aged about thirty years, is a prisoner in the Paris jail, charged with poisoning his wife, Dora Bradley.

Tuesday night just after Bradley and wife returned from church, Bradley gave the woman an apple which she ate. An hour later she died of convulsions.

At the inquest held Wednesday by Coroner J. Ed Ray, James Butler, grocer, testified that Ben Bradley begged an apple from him Tuesday afternoon to use in taking some medicine. T. E. Savage, clerk at Phillips' drug store, testified that Ben Bradley bought five cents worth of strychnine from him Tuesday night, saying that he (Bradley) wanted to kill some dogs. Sara January testified that Dora Bradley, on her deathbed, said that after church Tuesday night she had eaten an apple given her by her husband, Ben Bradley, and that it was bitter. Another witness testified that Bradley said he thought his wife had been poisoned.

It is said that Bradley was very jealous of his wife, though neighbors testified that they lived peaceably.

Bradley was arrested by Chas. Thomas, marshal of Millersburg, and brought to this city for safekeeping, there being considerable talk by the colored people of violence against Bradley. The Coroner's inquest is as follows:

CORONER'S VERDICT.

We, the jury, find that the dead body before us is that of Dora Bradley, of Bourbon County, Kentucky, who came to her death about 11:30 p. m., March 2, 1897, in the town of Millersburg, from a poisonous effect of a dose of strychnine given her in an apple by her husband, Ben Bradley. We believe the same to have been given with murderous intent by the said Bradley.

A Question of Light.

On behalf of the County, Judge Howard went before the City Council at its last meeting to ask permission to have four gas posts—located on the corners of Broadway and Main, Broadway and High, Bank Row and High and Bank Row and Main—removed to the corners around the court house square. The Fiscal Court has authorized the purchase of four handsome and ornamental posts to be placed on the square, and the county merely asks permission to have the city's posts moved across the street.

The new posts would add greatly to the appearance of the public square. The pipes have already been laid and are ready for immediate connection. As far as the question of light is concerned the change of location would make but little difference, and the change would greatly improve the appearance of the corners mentioned during the day and at night.

Some Turnpike Talk.

THE Fiscal Court this week leased the Jacksonville and Centerville pike, toll-house and quarry, at $98.64 per year. The Court is also negotiating for the control of the Paris and Jackstown, Paris and Bethlehem, Millersburg, Ruddle's Mills and Cynthiana pike, Bedford and Hume pike, Ruddle's Mills and Shawhan pike. There will then be left but three toll roads in the county—Maysville and Lexington, Paris & Georgetown, and Paris and Townsend pikes.

THIRTY turnpike raiders destroyed two tollgates on the Fox Springs pike, two miles from Flemingsburg, Tuesday night, but toll is again being collected. The Fiscal Court met Monday to devise speedy means of freeing the road, but the raiders, it seems, were impatient and took the law into their own hands.

The county officials will endeavor to find out who the outlaws are and apply the penalty to its fullest extent.

Bluegrass Dentists Entertained.

DR. M. H. DAILY and Dr. J. R. Adair attended the meeting of the Bluegrass Dental Association Tuesday at Richmond. Dr. Daily's paper was an interesting number of the program. The visiting dentists were handsomely entertained by Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith at "Weetover Terrace," at a six o'clock dinner. The menu consisted of eight courses. The next meeting of the Association will be held June 1st at Winchester.

NUPTIAL KNOTS.

Engagements, Announcements And Solemnizations Of The Marriage Vow.

T. J. Wells and Miss Anna Christian, of this county, were married last week in Winchester.

The Maysville Ledger says: "Mr. George Oracraft of Montgomery and Miss Stella Mullikin of Bourbon county, who were returning from their marriage in this city Monday, met with a mishap. While crossing a creek near Lewisburg a wheel came off their buggy and they landed in the water. Fortunately they escaped with only a ducking."

MILLER-HUGHES NUPTIALS.

A pretty wedding occurred at the Christian Church last night at half-past seven o'clock when Miss Jessie Madison Hughes became the wife of Mr. William Bruce Miller. The ceremony was performed by Eld. J. S. Sweeney, and the wedding march was played by Prof. A. M. Gutzelt in his happiest manner. There were no bridesmaids.

The party entered the church in the following order: First came in pairs the ushers, Messrs. Albert Hinton and Swift Champ, Messrs. Louie Wolford (Cynthiana) and Ford Brent, followed by the groom and Mr. Walter Champ, best man. Then came the bride with her father, Mr. James M. Hughes. The party formed a semi-circle and while soft music was being played Eld. Sweeney pronounced the ceremony which joined the lives and loves of the contracting parties.

The groom, who is the junior editor of THE BOURBON NEWS, is esteemed by his fellow citizens for his good business qualities, moral worth and gentlemanly demeanor. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hughes, and is a leading figure in Paris society, and possesses many admirable traits of character which have won for her the love and respect of a large circle of friends. She was most becomingly attired in an elegant gown of heavy white broadcloth silk, made en train and trimmed with Duchess lace and pearl passementerie. She wore the customary bridal veil and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The wedding occurred on the bride's birth-day, which was also the anniversary of the marriage of her parents.

After the marriage ceremony the wedding party and about sixty relatives were entertained at an elegant luncheon, given at the home of the bride. The attendants were also entertained with a luncheon given Wednesday evening by the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left last night on the 10:15 train for a trip to Washington, followed by the best wishes and congratulation of scores of friends.

They were the recipients of many handsome presents.
